"Balancing News And Scripture"

By The Sojourner

1 John 4:4-6 ^(NIV) 1 John 4:4-6 ^(KJV) 1 John 4:4-6 ^(AMP)

Today we have news broadcasts 24/7, seven days a week. If we are not anchored in "The Word," Jesus Christ, we will become like the people without Christ. We will understand, think, and behave like the world which is without Christ. The world has no knowledge relationship with Christ. The world is like the "blind leading the blind" unable to see where they have been, where they are, or where they are going.

If Believers are not spending as much, or more, time in scripture as they are with the bad news of the world they will be distracted from the blessing and promise of God. Believers more connected with the world's news than God's news, prophesy, given them in advance to help them overcome the times in which they live will be of little or no effect in giving the hope of Christ, the Good News, to those lost, floundering, and depressed people around them.

Believers have been given advanced knowledge not just to know what is happening, to quietly and smugly sit and watch, but to engage the world with the Gospel as events confirm God's Word. The world's news is actually helping Believers have confirmation of Christ and all of scripture to bring the lost into the Kingdom of God!

Remember...

We need to always focus on Christ!

The blessings of our Lord on you and all that is yours by blood, adoption or assignment!
