Advent Service

Advent is a special time of year. We, much as the Children of Israel, wait in expectation of the promised Messiah.

The Sojourner's children always enjoyed Sunday evening dinners around the family table even more than usual when they saw the Advent Wreath in the middle of the table. They always relished the opportunity to take turns lighting a candle each week and saying their part. Then on Christmas The Sojourner would light the middle white candle and tell the Christmas story.

Here you will find an Advent service you can use in your home, small group, class, or church.
